

Station 1 – What is Typical?

- Are you typical? _____ Check the boxes below if it represents you:

<input type="checkbox"/> You are right-handed	<input type="checkbox"/> You are male
<input type="checkbox"/> You make less than $12,000/year	<input type="checkbox"/> You are 28
<input type="checkbox"/> You have a cell phone	<input type="checkbox"/> You are Han Chinese
<input type="checkbox"/> You do not have a bank account
- If you are NOT typical, how does it feel?
- What are 5 problems our world will have to deal with because of our growing population?
- Which of these problems do you think is the most important issue to solve?
- Google this issue and see if there is a non-profit organization that is working to correct this problem. What is the name and website of that organization?

Station 2 – 7Billion

- You were asked to “Enter the Anthropocene” topics on the 7Billion app. From Wikipedia: “The term anthropocene is used by some scientists to describe the current period in the Earth's history when human activities have had a significant global impact on the Earth's ecosystems.” Explain what this definition means in plain English.
- Describe the 3 photographs you found to be the most compelling. Why were they the most moving?

Description	Reason
a.
b.
c.
- From your list above, which one are you the most interested in learning about? What is the global issue of concern?

Station 3 – Global Awareness Quiz

1. What was your quiz score?
2. What can you do to be more aware of these global issues?
3. Which question provided the most startling statistic?
4. Google this issue and search for videos. Are there any educational videos about this issue that a person could watch for more information? What is the name and website of the best video?

Station 4 – Google News

1. What is the title of the news article that you read?
2. Who is the author of this article? Who published this article?
3. Is the information reliable? How do you know this?
4. What is the issue that the article describes? Does the article give enough details?
5. Google the issue. What website you use for more information about this topic?

Station 5 – Global Issues in Context

1. What global issue did you read about? DEFINE the issue in 2 sentences in the space below.
2. Where in the world does this probably mainly occur?
3. On your topic's main page, find the box called "Related Portals." What are some related issues?
4. On your topic's main page, find the box called "Get Involved." What are the websites or organizations listed in this box?